

JAYDEEP MUKHERJEE PHOTO

An image of the 10-armed Mother Durga, who, according to a legend, was able to defeat a monster terrorizing the people in 16th century India.

Crayons

From CI

Funds to purchase the supplies are provided by Megh-dutam Travel, the local Puja Clubs, private donations and now, through the sale of the children's drawings.

A typical food and supplies package includes rice, potatoes, cooking oil, biscuits and cakes, baby food, soap and sanitizers. Mukherjee, his wife Swaguna, two daughters and even his mother packet and deliver the supplies.

"We cover about 150 families a day," Mukherjee said, "and when we go into the Songachi area we'll be bringing along a few crayons and pencils for our young artists, just in case."

Dominick A. Merle is co-founder of the International Food, Wine & Travel Writers Association and is based in Montreal. Email dmerle@videotron.ca

SUBMITTED PHOTO

Jaydeep Mukherjee distributing supplies in Calcutta.